

COMPARATIVE LITERATURE MINOR

To enter the Comparative Literature minor, students must have fulfilled the College Writing I requirement, completed 40 units with an overall grade-point average of 2.0 or better, and completed at least three quarters (one year) or equivalent of a language other than English.

MINOR REQUIREMENTS
	COURSE & QUARTER COMPLETED
FOUR UPPER DIVISION COMPARATIVE LITERATURE COURSES (16-20)
Comparative Literature 191 may be repeated for credit toward the minor with topic change.
Students may substitute one course from Comparative Literature 1A-1D, 2AW-2DW, 4AW-4DW.
TWO UPPER DIVISION COURSES IN THE PRIMARY LITERATURE AREA (8-10)
ONE UPPER DIVISION COURSES IN THE SECONDARY LITERATURE AREA (4-5)
A sixth term or higher foreign language course may be substituted.

LITERATURE AREAS

Comparative Literature minors are required to complete upper division coursework in two literature areas. Students who complete two upper division courses in a Primary Literature Area other than English may petition to take an upper division literature in translation course to fulfill the Secondary Literature Area course requirement. If students select English as their Primary Literature Area, then the Secondary Literature Area course must be taught in the original language.

Students should consult with the Studies Services Advisor and/or Director of Undergraduate Studies to select appropriate literature courses in their Primary and Secondary Literature Areas. A list of pre-approved courses can be found on the Department of Comparative Literature website (<https://complit.ucla.edu/>) under the Major and Minors section of the Undergraduate tab.
